BESS SNYDER WILL PRESENT
"SINNERFOLD" IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

Los Angeles based choreographer Bess Snyder returns to Missoula to present "Sinnerfold--A Dance Concert" at the University of Montana Women's Center Gym Thursday and Friday, Nov. 15 and 16, at 8 p.m.

According to Ester Rabano of Dance West Magazine, "'Sinnerfold' successfully demonstrates Bess Snyder's skill as a choreographer/dancer and dramatist."

Ms. Snyder is a graduate of the UM drama/dance department, a founding member of danceMontana, and a recent M.F.A. graduate of California Institute of the Arts.

She will present "Sinnerfold" in Missoula in completion of a three-week residency at the UM drama/dance department. Her residency and the concert are sponsored by ASUM and the University Dance Ensemble. The concert is a benefit performance for the ensemble's scholarship program.

As part of the residency, the Montana native will teach modern technique classes and set a new work, "Conversations," on the University Dance Ensemble, to be performed at their January dance concert. An informal showing of "Conversations" is scheduled Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 8 p.m. at the Women's Center Gym.

Tickets for "Sinnerfold" are $2. They are available at the Dance Division Office in Women's Center 111, or at the door. For information about the program, call 243-4641 between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.
